"I spend a great deal of time passing on what I learned to others who want and need it badly. I do it for four reasons:

1. Sense of Duty.
2. It is a pleasure.
3. Because in so doing I am paying my debt to the man who took time to pass it on to me.
4. Because every time I do it I take out a little more insurance for myself against a possible slip."

Dr. Bob Smith, from the book "Alcoholics Anonymous," pp 180-181

Step Four: Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

THE AA TRADITION

To those in its fold, Alcoholics Anonymous has made the difference between misery and sobriety, and often the difference between life and death. AA can, of course, mean just as much to uncounted alcoholics not yet reached.

Therefore, no society of men and women ever had a more urgent need for continuous effectiveness and permanent unity. We alcoholics see that we must work together and hang together; else, most of us will finally die alone.

The “12 Traditions” of Alcoholics Anonymous are, we believe, the best answer that our experience has yet given to those ever-urgent questions, “How will AA best function?” and, “How can AA best stay whole and so survive?”

Four—Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A as a whole.
